

THE LUCILLE CLIFTON MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

To attend the Poetry Program of the Community of Writers

An ongoing participant who was a long-time friend of Lucille Clifton and admirer of her work has donated this scholarship for a poet attending Squaw for the first time, who would not be able to attend without financial assistance.

Scholarship Amount: $1,240

This covers your tuition and twin (shared) accommodations. (Scholarship recipient will still have to send in a $100 donation by the deadline.)

To Apply:

Provide a paragraph in your cover sheet, which begins: "Application for consideration for The 2012 Lucille Clifton Memorial Poetry Scholarship" In this paragraph, please introduce yourself and tell us what you hope to get out of your week in Squaw Valley, and why you would be a good candidate for the scholarship.

If Scholarship is granted to you:

If you accept this scholarship, out of the seven poems you write, you agree to send the scholarship donor several you like best, plus a brief summary of what you felt was most valuable during your Squaw week.

Optional: Feel free to email any of your daily poems to the donor during the week. This information will be provided when you arrive in Squaw Valley.
